Report 2018 to ACNW

Silver Bow Publishing has been operating as a book publishing company since 2011. It is an affiliate of Saddlestone Inc established 1987. We are members of Access Copyright, Public Lending Rights Commission, Socan, and are represented by Library Distributors in both Canada and the USA.

Over the 8 years we have been operational, we have currently published and released 50 books and by December 31, 2018 we will have published and released over 60 books. We began publishing poetry books and have slowly added non-fiction and fiction to our genres represented. We have authors from Canada, and the United States.
