RUSART FINE ARTS CO 2019 Year Report by Elena Nahum Leroy

RUSART FINE ARTS CO is a private independent art studio operated in Greater Vancouver, providing high-quality art education and hands-on workshops to thousands of students since 2009. We offer classes, private lessons, corporate and family events for all ages, all levels and all mediums.

Our teaching philosophy is to listen to our aspiring artists and help guide them to their final masterpieces. All our teachers are professional artists and designers with many years of experience teaching arts and inspiring kids and adults to be creative. Here at RUSART FINE ARTS CO, you are not merely joining an art studio—you are joining a vibrant, supportive community! Our students are long-term clients, continuing with lessons year after year. We appreciate all the support of our students and communities, many students come to us as a client referral. Each week there are over 150 students learning, creating and encouraging each other.
