Cultural Coordinator

Founded in 1967, the Arts Council of New Westminster (ACNW) is a non-profit organization committed to a mission of bringing the arts to the centre of community life. We accomplish our mission through initiatives that focus on arts programming in the community, arts advocacy, and programs that nurture and support our local artists and arts organizations.

The Cultural Coordinator will work in collaboration with all ACNW staff in undertaking a community-based research and planning project for the implementation of workshops, events and other arts activities in New Westminster for Indigenous artists to connect, promote and present their work.

Responsibilities:

- Participating in the facilitation and the coordination of National Indigenous Peoples Day Music by the River, Fridays on Front and other ACNW programming.
- Strengthen Indigenous connections in New Westminster and overseeing the presentation of Indigenous Artists within ACNW programming
- Building long term connections and partnerships with the artists, the arts community, local businesses and service organizations.
- Collection of data (including attendance records, community engagement, etc)
- Tracking goals, progress, and deadlines
- Onsite day-of support
- Other duties as assigned, by the ACNW Executive Director

Qualifications:

- An interest in and/or knowledge of Event Management and Promotions
- Completion of one year of post-secondary education
- Computer literacy, experience with multiple social media platforms
- Attention to detail and ability to work independently
- Excellent communication skills - written and verbal
- High degree of self-motivation and creative problem solving
- Culturally aware and a love for the Arts
- Available to work weekends and evenings
- Valid Class 5 Driver's License for the Province of British Columbia

Timeline: May 11, 2020 to August 28, 2020, Wednesday to Sunday; however, a flexible week may be necessary in order to meet programming needs.

Remuneration: $18.00 per hour, 40 hrs per week
